ISHRAE - Student Chapter Formation - Frequently Asked Questions

What is ISHRAE?

ISHRAE [Indian Society of Heating Ventilating & Air Conditioning Engineers] is non-profit organization which remains in service for the HVACR community & has the following objectives :

1. Advancement of Sciences of HVACR and related Sciences.
2. Continuing Education of Members/others thru Lectures, Demos & Publications.
3. Rendition of Career Guidance & Financial Assistance to Students.
4. Encouragement of Scientific Research.

To further these objectives, ISHRAE organizes Exhibitions like ACREX & COMFEX, Technical Seminars, Technical Lectures etc. Specially for the students ISHRAE encourages the formation of 'Student Chapters' & organizes special events for such chapters such as Project Competitions, Technical Seminars, Placement Assistance, Paper Presentation Competitions etc.

What is ASHRAE?

ASHRAE - [American Society of Heating Ventilating & Air Conditioning Engineers] is the World-Wide Society most popularly known for its 'Handbooks' & also for its Monthly Journals & AHR Expo The Annual International Exhibition. ISHRAE is affiliated society of ASHRAE in India.

What is a Student Chapter?

An ISHRAE student chapter can be formed at any Engineering Institute having a minimum 3 year course having HVACR / Thermodynamics as a subject. Minimum 20 students are needed to form a student chapter. Atleast one [preferably two] staff members are needed to act as 'Chapter Co-ordinators'. These chapter coordinators should be ISHRAE members.

ISHRAE Pune can have student chapters for colleges in Pune / Aurangabad / Nashik / Kolhapur & other areas. Colleges in Mumbai / Nagpur should approach the local ISHRAE chapter in these areas.

What are the benefits of forming a student chapter?

Other than having a well equipped Library ISHRAE chapters conduct monthly technical programs, which the student members can attend free of cost.

Sponsored programs & seminars are heavily subsidized for student members, enabling them to get a professional exposure at extremely low costs.

ISHRAE publishes a QUARTERLY JOURNAL priced at Rs.150/-per issue. A ONE YEAR subscription to this excellent quality journal is available FREE for all student chapter members.

Events like TechnoCHILL, which are exclusive for student are almost free for student members. The benefits of attending such events &/or participating in them is highlighted on the reverse.

ISHRAE being a society of professional engineers, student members can interact closely with such members, which can help in tremendously in terms of career guidance,project ideas,industrial visits,placements etc.

What are fees for student members?

Each student member pays an annual fee of Rs.350/- towards the membership. This special fee is also applicable for 1 yr from graduation.

What is the procedure for student chapter formation?

Standard application forms are available from ISHRAE and/or with your faculty members. Forms duly filled with the membership fees should be handed over to the chapter co-ordinator of your college. Whenever you have 20+ applications a separate chapter of the college can be formed. ISHRAE shall then formally register your chapter and issue a 'Charter'.
